

MISSION COMPLETE

Bletchley Park listens to and collects memories of people who worked here during the war.
 Draw or write about your favourite memory of Bletchley Park.

What questions do you still have about Bletchley Park and codebreaking?

.....

.....

.....

CODE BREAKER
IDENTITY CARD

NAME

.....

(Draw your picture here)

Complete your mission - find the stamp - find the desk in the Library

YOUR MISSION

Welcome to Bletchley Park.

You are training to become a Codebreaker to work for the Government Code and Cypher School. You will work here until World War Two ends. To complete your training, find these objects or places then go to the Mansion to officially stamp your identity card. Keep this identification with you at all times.

Remember, your work is a secret and careless talk costs lives!

LOCATION: BLOCK C SECRETS REVEALED

Find this quote

'The geese that laid the golden eggs and never cackled'

Who said it?

.....

Who are the 'geese'?

.....

What does it mean?

.....

LOCATION: THE MANSION

Write 3 words to describe the Mansion:

.....

.....

.....

Don't forget to stamp your pass!

When you enter, turn left and ahead is the Veterans' Stories exhibition. Listen to or read about someone who used to work at Bletchley. What was it like?

Turn left to enter the library. Can you spot these objects? How many?

Telephone

Radio

Typewriter

Handbag

What was the name of the person who's office is opposite the Library?

.....

.....

LOCATION: HUT 11A

What does a Bombe machine do?
Tick the right answer.

- Breaks the Enigma code
- Checks the possible settings of Enigma messages

Draw and label a part of the machine.

LOCATION: BLOCK C - SECRETS REVEALED

Move into the second part of the exhibition. Draw... what did dispatch riders need to help them bring coded messages to Bletchley Park?

LOCATION: BLOCK B

What is this machine called?

.....

What does it do?

.....

Can you name these parts of the machine?

K.....

R.....

L.....

These machines were used by the German military during WW2. The more you can find out about how it works, the more chance you have of cracking the code!

LOCATION: HUT 6

Please enter this Hut and find yourself in 28 February 1941.

What happened on this day?

.....
.....
.....

What would it be like to work here?

.....
.....

What was each room used for? Match them up.

- Registration Room
- Machine Room
- Interception Control Room
- Netz and Crib Rooms
- Decoding Room

- Cipher settings are broken using pencil and paper.
- Intercepted messages are typed into adapted Typex machines to decrypt them.
- Intercepted messages are sorted.
- Staff communicate with Y-stations to ensure all radio stations are covered.
- Where different methods are tried to help break the ciphers.

LOCATION: HUT 8

Go into Hut 8 with your group. Work as a team to find out what helped the Codebreakers to break codes.

What is cribbing?

.....
.....

Circle the different methods used for Enigma codebreaking...

- |                 |                 |                      |
|-----------------|-----------------|----------------------|
| Flipping a coin | Probability     | Guessing             |
| Pinches         | Trial and error | Eins Catalogue       |
| Banburismus     | Cribbing        | Frequency of letters |

Can you find Alan Turing's mug? Why do you think he chained it to the radiator?

.....
.....